

June 2022

1. Shas. Three-day national webinar organized by Digvijay Autonomous Higher College

Shas. In collaboration with Zoology Department of Digvijay Autonomous Higher College, IQAC, Science Club and Penchveli PG College, Parasia, District Chhindwara, Principal Dr. K.L. Tandekar, a three-day national online seminar (03 to 05 June 2022) was organized on the occasion of "World Environment Day", titled "Conservation and Sustainable Development of Natural Resources".

The purpose of celebrating a day like World Environment Day is to draw people's attention towards the impacts of that day. Environment Day is celebrated to draw people's attention towards the environmental crisis and to remind people about this crisis, and to fulfill the purpose and goal of this webinar, scholars from different states of India are invited to gather public thinking and discussion. Join for.

The chief guest of the inaugural address, Dr. Aruna Palta, Honorable Vice Chancellor of Hemchandayadav University, Durg, congratulated the entire team of Digvijay College for creating awareness through this national online seminar on this burning topic. After this, the welcome speech was given by Mrs. Ushathakur, Head of the Department of Zoology. After that, Honorable Principal Dr. K.L. Tandekar extended his best wishes. In the keynote address, Dr. Punjab Raochandekar, Principal Shas. Penchaveli PG Mahavidyalaya Parasia, District Chhindwara explained about biodiversity, and gave detailed information about extinct creatures in biodiversity.

Shri Alok Tiwari (IPS) DSF, Aranya Bhawan, Atal Nagar, Nava Raipur discussed the topic of water conservation including its sources, uses, deforestation and its conservation.

Dr. L.P. Nagpurkar led valuable conversations on climate change and concerns through adaptation and migration initiatives for a sustainable future. He delivered his lecture on Climate Change for a Sustainable Future. They discussed 17 goals and seven operating principles to transform sustainability into the future. Certainly global warming affects food stability and food production, thus affecting the sustainability of populations, societies and human diversity, the absence of which is increasing wildlife crime.

Dr. Sanjay Theeske shared his views about 'Environmental Protection'. He talked about various aspects of problems affecting the environment including global warming, biodiversity imbalance, animal human ratio, deforestation, urbanization etc.

Dr. Majid Ali presented the Wildlife Protection Act 1972 and discussed in detail its need and implementation. Dr. Kiran Lata Damle, Dr. Sanjay Thieske and Dr. Majid Ali contributed in running the stage.

To make this three-day national online seminar successful, Mr. Ashish Mandalay and Mr. Nadir Iqbal of the technical team of the college provided technical support.

Gokul Nishad, Faculty of Chemistry, Shri Chiranjeev Pandey, Faculty of Zoology, and M.Sc. of Zoology. Student of NCC The cadets gave their active participation and cooperation to make this webinar a success.

More than 600 delegates from various states of India, including Jammu, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Karnataka, UP, Mizoram and Meghalaya, and interior region of Chhattisgarh, registered for the webinar. An average of 75 delegates join the YouTube channel live.

All the team members – teachers, students, organizers made this webinar worthwhile by their efforts and hard work to make it possible.

